

W

Above It All
The wood-lined ceiling of this BattersbyHowat-designed house adds warmth to the modern design. See more of this stunning Vancouver reno on page 38.

APRIL 2018
B.C. & ALBERTA // VOLUME 47 // NUMBER 3

FRESH PERSPECTIVE

38// Daydream Believers

The architects at BattersbyHowat bring the notion of quiet respite and reflection—though with an airy open-concept floor plan—to a family home in Vancouver.

48// Pitch-Perfect

In the renovation of a 1973 ski cabin in Whistler, angles and idiosyncrasies are reimagined by Stark Architecture into an unexpected hybrid of old and new.

58// Calm Beside the Storm

Designer Negar Ghorashi saves a mid-century post-and-beam home in West Vancouver from the bulldozer—and brings it beautifully into the present.